1. Outline of Summer Study Sessions for “Preserving and Expanding Affordable Rental Housing in Montgomery County and its Impact on Seniors”.	Summer Study Session have been scheduled for the following dates: June 28 in the Rockville Library; July 18 and August 3 (tentative) at sites to be determined. The Sessions are scheduled from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM each date. The basis of the 2017 Summer Study Session is the COA’s 2012 Affordable Rental Housing Summer Study. The affordable housing progress since 2012 will be reviewed. The focus of Session 1 is expanding affordable senior housing. Invitees to this session will include MC Housing & Community Affairs, MC Planning Dept., non-profit and for-profit housing developers. Six presenters will share information.	Suggested Action Steps:

2. The importance of AIP representatives on other county commissions, work groups, etc. 3. 2017/2018 AIP Priorities	The focus of Session 2 will be preserving affordable senior rental housing. Invitees to this session will include MC Council members, Rental Alliance, Action in Montgomery and Homecrest ED. Six presenters will share information. The focus of Session 3 will be the development of recommendations for preserving and expanding affordable senior rental housing in Montgomery County. The issue of how to communicate the summer study was briefly discussed. The issue of communication with other county groups addressing senior housing issues and learning their priorities was discussed. Specifically, the MC Dept. of Planning used to have a representative on the AIP Committee but no longer does. Isabelle Schoenfeld recommended that the next year's priorities be discussed at the Sept. 2017 meeting. Mary Petrizzo suggested senior wrap-around services. Monica Schaeffer suggested intergenerational services. Monica Schaeffer also suggested some published references to guide in the selection of future priorities : "Re-Creating Neighborhoods for Successful Aging", 2009, edited by P. Abbott, N. Carman, J. Carman and B. Scarfo. "Aging in Community", 2013, edited by J. Blanchard.	Request that Noelle Heyman contact Gwen Wright about reestablishing a communication connection.
